Baruna Silver

Jewellery of the Seven Seas

We created Baruna Silver to help you bring your diving dreams to life.

Let our silver dangle from your wrist, reminding you of the wonders you long to find under the ocean. Wear Baruna Silver to remember the moment you first swam with Manta Rays, or caught a glimpse of the elusive Whale Shark. Choose the Mola Mola (Sunfish) to recall its ascent from the depths of the ocean.

All of the jewellery in the Baruna collection is made of Sterling Silver (925) preserving your memories forever. Collect your diving memories on Baruna Silver's unique bracelet and add a charm for every dream that comes true. Or choose our rubber necklace, and wear a Baruna Silver pendant close to your heart.

Our exclusive collection is made by traditional Balinese silversmiths in Celuk, the heart of Bali. Every detail is handcrafted to create a unique treasure.

Live the diving life. Live your dreams. Live Baruna Silver.

Baruna Silver

Jewellery of the Seven Seas

In Balinese, Dewa Baruna is the name of the Hindu sea god. It is from this deity that Baruna Silver takes its name; and it is on Dewa Baruna's birthplace – Bali, the island of the gods – that Baruna Silver has its origins.

Baruna Silver was founded by diving enthusiasts who were determined to turn their love of the island and affection for diving into a specialty business. It was only natural that they chose to work with silver, one of the traditional crafts of Bali. And thus Baruna Silver was born – jewellery for divers and admirers of Bali alike.
